

Schools offering Free & Reduced Lunches in the Southern Windsor Region

These statistics are for the 2015 - 2016 school year. In Vermont 44% of children are on free or reduced lunches compared to 49% of children in the Region. A child is eligible for the program if they meet family size and income guidelines published by the US Department of Agriculture. For more information visit the Vermont Agency of Education's Child Nutrition Programs reports.

There are 3,180 students in the Region. 1,572 students receive free & reduced lunches, which is roughly 50% of the student population

